Library Rules

1.The library is primarily meant for the use of faculty, research scholars, students and non-teaching employees of the Central University of Karnataka, Gulbarga. Library membership is provided on application by filling up the membership form available at the counter.

2. The privilege of borrowing books from the library is restricted only to regular/permanent employees of the University. They must be present in-person and to produce valid ID card at the time of borrowing books.

3.Students, faculty and research scholars of other Universities/organizations are also permitted to use the library on written request; or on production of a letter from the concerned organization.

4.On special request, outsiders (scholars/scientists) are also allowed to use the library facilities for a short period to collect data to support their research activities on a written request by producing a letter from their institution or an ID card.

5.All members should return the books borrowed from the library before they proceed on a long period of leave and obtain a ' No Dues ' Certificate from the library. The Deputy Librarian reserves the right to allow more books to a member on special request depending on the need and urgency.

6.Photocopying of library books and journals may only be carried out within the Copyright regulations. Members can utilize the photocopying facility provided inside the Library on payment.
